Constitution of the World Young Women's Christian Association

Preamble

Founded by women from Christian traditions around the world, the World Young Women's Christian Association (World YWCA) is based on faith in God the Almighty, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Its vision is of a fully inclusive world where justice, peace, health, human dignity, freedom and care for the environment are promoted and sustained by women's leadership. The World YWCA recognises the equal value of all human beings.

Towards this end, the World YWCA advocates and supports volunteerism, membership, diversity, tolerance, mutual respect, integrity and responsible accountability.

The strength and solidarity of the World YWCA is inspired by the faithfulness of its leaders, past and present, whose service to humanity advances the purpose of the World YWCA.

Organisation Name

1. The name of the organisation is the World Young Women's Christian Association which shall be known as the World YWCA.

Organisation Logo

2. The logo of the World YWCA is a blue triangle surrounded by a circle.

Basis

3. The World YWCA is founded on and inspired by the Christian faith. The association is a charitable organisation.

Purpose

4. The purpose of the World YWCA is to develop the leadership and collective power of women and girls around the world to achieve justice, peace, health, human dignity, freedom and a sustainable environment for all people.

Function

5. The World YWCA unites and coordinates member associations in a world movement and acts on their behalf in matters for which it has received authority.

Members

6. A full member of the World YWCA is a national association that meets all the conditions of affiliation.
7. An associate member of the World YWCA is a national association that does not meet all the conditions of affiliation.
8. An association, which for special economic or political reasons is not a national association, may be a full or associate member of the World YWCA.
9. Member associations of the World YWCA shall be organised into eight (8) regions approved by the World Council.

Affiliation of Members

10. The conditions for affiliation of member associations are:
 - a. The association shall use the name YWCA.
 - b. The association shall have a purpose and programmes consistent with the purpose of the World YWCA.
 - c. The association shall be led by women committed to the purpose of the World YWCA, of whom at least 25% must be aged thirty (30) years or under.
 - d. The association shall be a membership organisation composed of individual women members or of local associations which have individual women members. Individual women members shall have voting rights in their association.
 - e. The association shall be in substantial compliance with standards of good management and accountability approved by the World YWCA.
 - f. The association shall pay an annual affiliation fee to the World YWCA
 - g. The association shall have a legal structure recognised by the laws of its country.
 - h. The association shall have a constitution approved by the World YWCA.

Changing Membership Status

Powers of World Council

11. The World Council may affiliate, change the membership status of, suspend or disaffiliate a member association by a resolution passed by a majority of at least two-thirds (2/3) of member associations where each member association shall have one (1) vote only.

12. The World Council may suspend the membership of a member association for a specified period or disaffiliate a member association if the World Council is of the opinion that the member association no longer complies with the conditions for affiliation or has acted in a manner, which is contrary to the interests of the World YWCA.

Powers of World Board

13. The World Board may suspend the membership of a member association for a specified period no longer than until the next World Council meeting if the World Board is of the opinion that a member association has seriously infringed standards of good management and accountability.

Process for Suspension or Disaffiliation

14. Prior to giving notice of a proposed suspension or disaffiliation of a member association, the World Board shall take such steps it considers appropriate to assist the member association to comply with the conditions for affiliation and to act in accordance with the interests of the World YWCA.
15. In the case of a proposed suspension for serious infringement of standards of good management and accountability, the World Board shall give three (3) months notice of the proposed suspension to all member associations. In all other cases, the World Board shall give one (1) year's notice of the proposed suspension or disaffiliation to all member associations.

Process for Change of Membership Status

16. The World Board may at the request of a member association or at its own initiative review the membership status of an association. The World Board may recommend a change of membership status to the World Council.

Consequences of Disaffiliation

17. If an association is disaffiliated, it shall immediately cease use of the name YWCA and the logo of the World YWCA.
18. A member association may request its own disaffiliation from the World YWCA, in which case that association shall cease use of the name YWCA and the logo of the World YWCA.

World Council

Pariser Basis

Der Satz, der heute als „Pariser Basis“ bezeichnet wird, wurde von dem 22-jährigen Jurastudenten Frederich Monnier formuliert. Die Pariser Basis gilt seit 1855 und wurde vom 6. Weltrat im Jahr 1973 bestätigt. Außerdem wurde sie auch bei der 100-Jahr-Feier 1955 sowie erneut bei der 125-Jahr-Feier 1980 bekräftigt. Bis heute gilt sie als Grundlage der CVJM-Arbeit in aller Welt.

„Die Christlichen Vereine Junger Männer haben den Zweck, solche jungen Männer miteinander zu verbinden, welche Jesus Christus nach der Heiligen Schrift als ihren Gott und Heiland anerkennen, in ihrem Glauben und Leben seine Jünger sein und gemeinsam danach trachten wollen, das Reich ihres Meisters unter jungen Männern auszubreiten. Keine an sich noch so wichtigen Meinungsverschiedenheiten über Angelegenheiten, die diesem Zweck fremd sind, sollten die Eintracht brüderlicher Beziehungen unter den nationalen Mitgliedsverbänden des Weltbundes stören.“

Zusatzklärung von Kassel, 1985/2002:

Die CVJM sind als eine Vereinigung junger Männer entstanden. Heute steht die Mitgliedschaft allen offen. Männer und Frauen, Jungen und Mädchen aus allen Völkern, Konfessionen und sozialen Schichten bilden die weltweite Gemeinschaft im CVJM. Die ‚Pariser Basis‘ gilt heute im CVJM-Gesamtverband in Deutschland e.V. für die Arbeit mit allen jungen Menschen.“

Kampala Erklärung (1973)

Bei der 6. Weltratstagung des CVJM 1973 in Kampala, Uganda, wurde zusätzlich zur Pariser Basis folgendes beschlossen:

„Die Pariser Basis sagt aus, dass Christus das Zentrum der als weltweite Gemeinschaft verstandenen Bewegung ist, in der Christen aller Konfessionen miteinander verbunden sind. Sie folgt dem Grundsatz einer offenen Mitgliedschaft, die Menschen ohne Rücksicht auf ihren Glauben, ihr Alter, ihr Geschlecht, ihre Rasse und ihre sozialen Verhältnisse umfasst. Die Basis ist nicht dazu bestimmt, als Bedingung für die Einzelmitgliedschaft im CVJM zu dienen, welche bewusst dem Ermessen der Mitgliedsbewegungen des Weltbundes überlassen bleibt. Die Basis macht deutlich, dass die Mitgliedsbewegungen die Freiheit haben, ihre Zielsetzungen anders auszudrücken, in einer Weise, die unmittelbar den Bedürfnissen und Vorstellungen derer entspricht, denen sie dienen. Entscheidend ist, dass die Zielsetzungen in der Beurteilung des Weltbundes im Einklang stehen zur Pariser Basis. In Anbetracht der Prägung der CVJM in der Welt von heute werden durch diesen Akt der Anerkennung der Pariser Basis den verschiedenen Vereinen und ihren Mitgliedern als Mitarbeiter Gottes Forderungen auferlegt, zu denen gehören.

- Für Chancengleichheit und Gerechtigkeit für alle zu wirken.
- Für die Schaffung und Erhaltung einer Welt zu wirken, in der die Beziehungen der Menschen untereinander durch Liebe und Verständnis gekennzeichnet sind.
- Auf Verhältnisse und deren Erhaltung im CVJM und in der Gesellschaft, ihren Organisationen und Einrichtungen hinzuarbeiten, die der Ehrlichkeit, Vertiefung und schöpferischen Fähigkeit Raum geben.
- Formen der Mitarbeit und des Programms zu entwickeln und zu erhalten, die die Vielfalt und Tiefe christlicher Erfahrung deutlich machen.
- Für die Entfaltung des ganzen Menschen zu wirken.“

Challenge 21 (1998)

Verabschiedet im Jahre 1998 am 14. YMCA-Weltrat in Frechen, Deutschland

In Bekräftigung der im Jahre 1855 verabschiedeten Pariser Basis, die weiterhin als Grundsatzerklärung zum Auftrag des YMCA gültig bleibt, erklären wir an der Schwelle zum dritten Jahrtausend, dass der YMCA eine weltweite, christliche, ökumenische Freiwilligenbewegung für Frauen und Männer mit besonderem Schwerpunkt und echter Beteiligung von jungen Menschen ist und dass er sich das christliche Ideal des Aufbaus einer menschlichen Gemeinschaft zum Ziel gesetzt hat, in der Gerechtigkeit, Liebe, Frieden und Versöhnung herrschen, damit die gesamte Schöpfung an der Lebensfülle teilhat.

Jeder YMCA ist deshalb dazu aufgerufen, sich bestimmten Herausforderungen zu stellen und nach eigenen, speziellen Gegebenheiten Prioritäten zu setzen. Diese Herausforderungen, bei denen es sich um eine Weiterentwicklung der 1973 verabschiedeten Kampala-Erklärung handelt, umfassen:

- Die gute Nachricht von Jesus Christus weitergeben und sich einsetzen für die geistliche, intellektuelle und körperliche Verfassung des Einzelnen und das Wohl der ganzen Gesellschaft.
- Alle, speziell aber junge Menschen und Frauen, dazu ermutigen und befähigen, vermehrt Verantwortung und Leitungsaufgaben auf allen Ebenen zu übernehmen und auf eine gleichberechtigte Gesellschaft hin zu arbeiten.
- Für die Rechte der Frauen eintreten und sie fördern und die Rechte der Kinder wahren.
- Den Dialog und die Partnerschaft zwischen Menschen mit unterschiedlichem Glauben und verschiedenen Überzeugungen fördern, die kulturellen Eigenheiten der Menschen anerkennen und für eine kulturelle Erneuerung eintreten.
- Sich verpflichten in Solidarität mit den Armen, den Besitzlosen, den entwurzelten Menschen und den unterdrückten ethnischen und religiösen Minderheiten zu arbeiten.
- Danach streben, Vermittelnde und Versöhnende in Konfliktsituationen zu sein und sich einzusetzen für eine einflussreiche Mitbestimmung und die Förderung von Menschen zu ihrer besseren Selbstbestimmung.
- Gottes Schöpfung gegen alle zerstörerischen Kräfte verteidigen und die Ressourcen der Erde für die kommenden Generationen erhalten und schützen.

Um sich diesen Herausforderungen zu stellen, wird der YMCA Formen der Zusammenarbeit auf allen Ebenen entwickeln, die Selbsterhaltung und Selbstbestimmung ermöglichen.

Leitbild Cevi Schweiz

Der Cevi ist eine christliche Bewegung von Kindern, Jugendlichen, Frauen und Männern. Er ist Teil der weltweiten Christlichen Vereine Junger Frauen und Männer, YWCA (CVJF) und YMCA (CVJM). Der christliche Glaube ist grundlegend und wird in vielfältigen Formen gelebt.
